

Alan S. Gordon

Citizen Lawyer Charlotte, NC

"My stewardship of the Mayor's Immigration Study Commission provided an invaluable reminder to me of how business and community leaders, as well as elected and appointed government officials, can work together to rationally discuss this hot button issue. In this situation, it was imperative to the Charlotte community that these leaders discuss the facts and propose solutions to the immigration challenges affecting our community."

Citizen Lawyer Alan S. Gordon (solo practitioner) chaired the Mayor's Immigration Study Commission, a diverse team of local elected and appointed officials as well as business and community leaders tasked with identifying and researching the Charlotte-Mecklenburg community's current immigration practices and policies. The commission was the first of its kind in the U.S. to conduct such a study on the local level.

A 1977 graduate of the University of Miami School of Law, Alan has chaired the Mayor's International Cabinet, serves on the Advisory Board of the Latin American Chamber of Commerce of Charlotte, and is founding chair of the Immigration Specialization Committee of the N.C. State Bar.
